

FUN RUN

April 17, 2010

Events begin at 9:00 a.m.

Proceeds Benefit 501c3 Woodcock Minnesota in-state early succession forest management projects

The Event is Simple:

3 chukars planted on a wooded course with 25 minutes to find them. You are allowed 6 shells, with bonuses and penalties galore. Its a great chance to stretch your dog's legs after a long winter and to put your money where your mouth is.

There will be games:

Steve Grossman has agreed to set-up a 'Woodcock Walk' that he assures will challenge the most accomplished and discriminating woodcock aficionado. Sporting Clays will be available for a fee for those that choose to shoot.

Meals included:

Around Noon, Gayle Grossman will be present a delicious wild rice soup and sandwich combo for lunch, and at 6:00 p.m. a wonderful stuffed partridge breast gourmet dinner for those that choose to stay and revisit the days events or talk dogs and upland birds in the warm and relaxing atmosphere of the Granary Restaurant.

Cost:

$100 includes your 3 chukar, lunch and dinner. You may bring your own libations. Overnight accomodations available starting at $39: Phone Little Moran Hunt Club at 218-894-3852 for room reservations.
